Homestay & Camp

Outline & Purposes

For 10 - 16 Year Olds

The Japan Association for the Promotion of English for Children (JAPEC) organizes an international exchange program for primary, middle and high school students from Australia, New Zealand, and America every summer. The aim of this exchange program is to promote international cultural exchange between Japanese children and people in other countries. Two primary activities that take place are a homestay and a 3-day international summer camp. This program also aims to enhance the communication skills of participants by offering them valuable opportunities to communicate with each other using their native and second languages (English and Japanese).

★ International Friendship Summer Camp

This is a three-day and two-night camp that aims to promote cultural exchange. Participants will be divided into several groups for various activities. By having meals and doing various activities together in small groups, children will have a chance to get to know each other well and deepen their understanding of each other's countries. Participants will travel by chartered bus arranged by JAPEC from Osaka to the campsite. Japanese children who study English and international staff will also join the camp. We are planning various activities that will be challenging and fun. Also, there will be opportunities to talk about your country and Japanese culture through presentations and performances.
